Town Crier Committee Report Vol. 1 No 10

Homeland Security Sees Reverence of Individual Liberty as Extreme Right-Wing Terrorism

Today, The Blaze reported on a new study out of the University of Maryland. According to The Blaze, people can, potentially, get targeted as probable extreme right -wing terrorists because they have a reverence for individual liberty, they believe that there is a grave threat to national sovereignty or they are distrustful of centralized Federal authority. The Study of Terrorism and Responses to Terrorism (START) conducted the study at the University. The study was funded by DHS. The study states that, "Groups that believe that one's personal and/or national 'way of life' is under attack and is either already lost or that the threat is imminent, are right-wing extremists." Patriots who hold such views and refuse to submit to the central planning are classified as terrorists. Considering the NDAA's sections 1021 & 1022, that could lead to indefinite detention for those who hold such views.

Special Interest to Town Criers

Of special interest to the Town Criers is a photo that accompanied the Blaze article. The photo, taken September 12, 2010 in Washington DC, shows a group of people in period clothes, which were there to uphold Tea Party values. The people in the photograph could be the Town Criers. In spirit, they are Town Criers. So, let's get this straight: A group of 'seasoned citizens', in period clothing, handing out Constitutions to the public and engaging in free speech are designated terrorists? Why is this? Because they are concerned with personal liberty and are opposed to central planning? Do we have that right? Terrorists, really? It appears that the 'old folks' are just waiting for the right moment to attack the young people. That's it....right? So, the DHS, and their friends, detain the 'old folks', that way no one will get hurt? Hmm.....As anyone can see, we live in a very dangerous world if people still expect to exercise their liberty.

The very essence of being an American is about personal liberty which is best achieved by a system of checks and balances within a decentralized republic as defined in our founding documents. So, why do these people find Americans so threatening? Because, they are about control. The essence of central planning is control. And, who are we talking about? They choose the name that works best to farther their goals. Today it is Progressive, but the following names also define them: Liberals, Marxists, Socialists, Communists, & Fascists.

Oath Keepers Join In with the Town Criers

Mike Austell and Peggy Labs made Oath Keeper's first appearance with the Town Criers, today. It was an honor to have them join us. Though Oath Keeper's focus is different than SATP's, we are all on the same page when it comes to Liberty and the issues that are stripping our Constitution's protection.

The Fourth Of July Topped Off With Fireworks....Many made a day of it in the Historic District...

However, The Crowd Really Grew After 6:00 PM.

The Record reported over 100,000 people. We believe that the number far exceeded that. The Town Criers made many friends as they worked the crowd. The 'Locals' were in greater attendance than normal because of the fireworks. Dave Heimbold, Joe Ryan and Lance Thate were busy collecting names to grow this publication and the SATP activities prior to the fireworks show.

Photos by TCC Staff

What Were They Thinking?

Many Found The Music Played From Loudspeakers Along The Bay Front Prior To The Fireworks Display Inappropriate For The 4th of July Celebration.

As the Town Criers made their way along the 'Bay Front', many people were asked if they thought the music appropriate. Few did. In an interview with American Legionnaires, who asked to remain anonymous, the sentiment was a resounding, "No. They considered the music to be distracting noise," as expressed to Dave Heimbold.

The Town Criers agreed with the public. The music played was better suited to the inside of a tavern and better tolerated if drunk. Today was our Nation's Birthday. It was a day when duty, honor and respect for our founding were appropriate. Instead of patriotic songs, we got drinking songs. With many young people in attendance, the Town Criers asked, "How can they gain a reverence for their Country, which is based on the principles of liberty, if the symbols are removed? How do the young learn love of Country if its founding is barely taught in the public schools and when the Founding Fathers are disrespected in favor of modern Marxist leaders?" The Town Criers have to ask why the City Officials would reduce our celebration of the founding of our Country to the mood of a drinking party without patriotic values. Events like this rarely happen without reason. The Town Criers hope that those responsible will reconsider the musical content next year. 'If they do not, well, I guess we will have a better understanding of who the 'City Fathers' truly are.'

What The Media Does Not Get....

Fox News, the establishment Republican news channel, and the various Progressive-Marxist news channels spend their time with Romney vs. Obama. They interpret polls without end. They chase side issues while ignoring the major questions. Tea Parties are ignored on one hand and declared dead on the other. Then, they're blamed for the stalemate in Congress. What the media does not wish to address is that the Tea Party movement is alive and well in the people. Now, the people are awakening to fact that the Republicans are playing the same game as the Democrats. The 'man on the street' is not interested in Romney and at the same time they are demanding that Obama must go. Today was another day without Romney's name being mentioned. The most important election, ever, according to the Republicans and their front runner is ignored. The Media continues to believe that the Tea Party movement is Republican controlled. They are wrong. The 'Movement' is in the people; not in Tea Party groups.

Saint Augustine Tea Party Holds Its Annual Election Of Officers At Its General Meeting....

The members of the SATP held its regular meeting at the Village Inn on July 10, 2012. It was reported that a larger than usual number of first time persons attended. Esther Miller reported that 7 new membership applications were received. She added that interest in SATP is the result of growing concern for the decline of the Country and the failure of the existing 'Political Parties' to address the issues. The majority of the new members were attracted to the SATP because of the Town Crier activities. The Town Crier Committee report, regarding the Criers excursion on the Fourth of July, and its additional event on July 7th, was the only committee report tendered. It was announced that to counter the summer heat, the Town Criers will change their Saturday activities from noon to late afternoon and early evening.

The main order of business, however, was the election of the Officers. The bylaws of the group call for an election on the second Tuesday of July. Readers of this publication will recall that the former Republican leadership resisted bylaws that gave any power to the membership. The seated Officers, David Heimbold, Chairman, Lance Thate, Treasurer, and Esther Miller, Secretary were re-elected by acclamation for another term.

SATP Sends Representatives to Americans for Prosperity Leadership Meeting in Jacksonville

Americans for Prosperity's (AFP) Executive Vice President, Tracy Henke, addressed a group of Conservative leaders, today. In attendance we noted, Randy Mc Daniels representing Act for America, Rolando Perez with Bear Witness, William Korach publisher of "The Report Card", Derek Hankerson with WFOY, Billie Tucker with "Big Voice Media", among others. Debbie Gonzales, pictured above, organized the event. Lunch was provided for the people attending. Ms. Henke encouraged the groups in attendance to work together so as not to duplicate efforts. She said that AFP would be there to help assist in the effort. She also stressed that, "Without property and prosperity, Liberty is not easily achieved. For this reason, Fiscal Conservative Principles are the focus of their organization. Without Liberty 'Social Conservative' values cannot be maintained.” The SATP was represented by Dave Heimbold and Lance Thate. The SATP has been working with some of the groups which have had speakers at the SATP Rallies and meetings. Several groups have also participated in Town Crier activities. Those in attendance expressed optimism regarding Conservative cooperation between the various organizations.

SATP Tours Big Voices Media Facility

David Heimbold, SATP Chairman, and Lance Thate, TCC Chairman, were invited to tour the Big Voice Media studios. A productive and enjoyable meeting with Billie Tucker and Lynne Holicky ensued. The SATP Officers had the opportunity to expose Billie Tucker to the TCC reports & SATP Website.

Photos by TCC Staff

In turn, they learned of some of the opportunities available on Big Voice. Big Voice Media will be addressing a regular SATP meeting in August to acquaint members of the potential expansion of Town Crier events on Big Voice Media. Doing live videos and interviews with the public, from the Town Criers activities on St. George St., was discussed.

Do You Remember When.....Marco Rubio Was The Tea Party Darling?

Photos by Lance Thate

Back in the days when Rubio spoke from the deck of the Dartmouth, the Tea Party Crowds believed he was their Candidate. Back in the days when the election of Republicans would save the day, Remember?

An email was sent to Senator Rubio which, in part, stated, “Barry Goldwater called for America to leave the U.N. 52 years ago. We finance them; they give us Agenda 21 controls.....”

Senator Rubio replied with, and I quote, “The U.N. was created with the specific objective of maintaining peace and security following the end of World War II. The United States is a founding member of the U. N. and one of only five permanent members of the United Nations Security Council. This prestigious position assists the United States in its efforts to spread the stated goals of our foreign policy. More than six decades later, we still need a U.N.....” The Senator has an interesting view of history. Never in its 67 years has the U.N. prevented war and, clearly, it has not maintained peace. The Senator goes on to recognize that, persistent ethical and accountability problems are limiting the U.N.'s role. To resolve this issue the Senator introduced a United Nations Reform Bill (S.1848).

The Senator continued with, "S.1848 would increase transparency and effectiveness within the U.N. and among other provisions, also prohibit the U.N. from spending U.S. contributions for purposes not approved by the U.S. Congress."

So, the U.S. Congress is going to fix ethical and accountability issues of 193 'Sovereign Member States'; do we have that right? And, the U.S. Congress is going to oversee the American portion of U.N. spending; is that right? Is this the same Congress that permits out of control domestic spending? This would be the same Congress that has a 17% approval rating among the American People? That same Congress is going to fix the U.N.?

Perhaps, Senator Rubio has forgotten who was largely responsible for his election. It was the Tea Party; you know the ones with the yellow flags. His support for the U.N. and its Communist activities, such as Agenda 21, are not the values of the people who supported him. When he stood on the deck of the Dartmouth, it was not blue flags flying; they were Yellow, Gadsden Flags!!! In 2016 there will be many more 'Don't Tread On ME' Gadsden Flags. The Senator's vote for the indefinite detention sections of NDAA has not gone unnoticed. The Tea Party movement has a message for Senator Rubio. We are anti-communist; our membership in the U.N. must go. The good works that the U.N. provides should be done directly by the U.S. Government, subject to the approval of the American People, not the U.S. Congress. It appears, Senator Rubio is just another 'two faced' Rino; handsome in appearance, but progressive in nature; a shiny apple with a rotten core.

Worry Not; The Senator Is Still The Republican Darling....

The evidence is the push to put him on the ticket for Vice President. Senator Marco Rubio does not meet Constitutional muster for the Vice Presidency. Marco Rubio is not a 'natural born Citizen.' Not to worry, the Republican establishment marches to their own drummer, rather than to the wording of Article 2, Section 1 of the United States Constitution. The Founders saw fit to insert the 'natural born citizen' requirement into the Constitution and that meant in their minds.... read my lips, "A natural born citizen is a child, born on U.S. soil, of two parents who were citizens of the United States." The Senator's parents were born in Cuba and were Cuban citizens at the time of his birth. Is he a native born citizen, yes. He was born on American soil. Is he a natural born citizen, no. Both of his parents were Cuban citizens, at the time of his birth. Is he a loyal public servant dedicated to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution, against all enemies foreign and domestic? We leave the answer to you. Editor

The Big Red Sign Prevails.....

The Public Knows Who Obama Is And They Are Ready To Confront Him!

The Town Criers reported that the original Big Red Sign was introduced during Memorial Day weekend; the enthusiastic demand and use by the public has caused the sign to look a little worn in photos. As a result, last week a new sign was introduced which states, Obama I Am Not Your Property. The sign was well accepted by the public, but not with the same intensity as the 'Big Red Sign'. As an experiment, the sign was double faced with the backside displaying; Obama Is A Communist , a new 'Big Red Sign'. The two sided sign could be held with either side showing in the photos. From the photos you can see clearly the public knows who Obama is and they are ready to confront him.

Photos by TCC Staff

The dialog between the Town Criers and the public involves a discussion of Obama's Communist associations from childhood to the present. Obama's family members were Communists. His childhood mentor, Frank Marshall Davis, was a card carrying member of the Communist Party. His formal education at Columbia and Harvard were Marxist. Obama's tactics were founded on Saul Alinsky's principles. His associates on the Southside of Chicago were revolutionaries. Obama's involvement with 'Liberation Theology,' a Soviet invention, lasted for twenty years. A Community Organizer, by definition is a 'Marxist Revolutionist'. The White House Czars are populated by Communists, too many to note here. Valerie Jarrett has been described as the de facto President. Her hero is Mao Tse-tung.

The dialog between the Town

Is Obama 'The Manchurian Candidate'?

July 16, 2012

Talking about Obama, Rush Limbaugh on his July 16, 2012 broadcast said, "He was indoctrinated as a child. His father was a communist. His mother was a leftist. He was sent to prep and Ivy League schools where his contempt for the country was reinforced. He moved to Chicago. It was the home of the radical-left movement. He hooks up to Ayers and Dohrn and Rashid Khalidi. He learns the ruthlessness of Cook County politics. This is what we have as a president: A radical ideologue, a ruthless politician who despises the country and the way it was founded and the way in which it became great. He hates it."

The Coming Insurrection

Today, the mainstream media concentrated on the appalling event that occurred in Aurora, Colorado. The deaths of twelve persons and 58 wounded victims have been duly reported. The very first thing the media did, though, was to attempt to blame this horrendous occasion on the Tea Party movement by prematurely identifying the shooter as a Tea Party member. The radical left advocates the use of violence to meet their ends; the Tea Party has no history of violence since its inception. This projection of the radical left’s behavior on their opponents is their hallmark. It tells you who the mainstream media is, doesn’t it? During Glenn Beck’s July 1, 2009 broadcast, he introduced his audience to a small book written in France by the ‘Invisible Committee.’ The book entitled The Coming Insurrection has become an instruction book for the Anarchists in America. Violence and destruction of the capitalist system is the focus of this book. With the presence of Communists and Anarchists in the Occupier Movement, we will likely see an increase in violent acts as we go ‘Forward.’ The mainstream media are preoccupied with the idea that the shooter is a mentally disturbed individual. It is too early to determine. It is equally possible that this is a revolutionary act. The conduct of the suspect, James Holmes, is consistent with the instructions in The Coming Insurrection.

In an interview with Laura Ingraham, Sarasota, Florida private investigator Bill Warner told Ingraham, “...that suspect Holmes fits the profile of a member of the Black Bloc”. The Black Bloc is comprised of self-proclaimed anarchists, radicals and revolutionaries. They traditionally dress in all black, according to Warner. They often partner with the Occupiers. These Anarchists want nothing more than to destroy the Capitalist system in America. They are prepared use violence as described by the ‘Invisible Committee’. According to David Heimbold, Chairman of the Saint Augustine Tea Party, “The Town Crier Committee has had opportunity to confront the Occupiers in St. Augustine, Florida.” The Occupier movement in St. Augustine was organized by the International Workers of the World, a Communist Union. The Black Bloc ‘look-alikes’, dressed in black, did no damage during the Occupier activity, here. For this story check out the Town Crier Committee Reports at www.saintaugustineteparty.org. Numerous posts on the internet suggest that the Black Bloc will be involved in violence at the Republican National Convention in August, in Tampa. Is this the act of a disturbed young man or the act of ‘Leftist Terror’? Time will tell.

Michael Smart JBS

Michael Smart, Regional Field Manger, and Keith Dunn, Field Coordinator, for The John Birch Society (JBS) attended the regular meeting of the SATP Tuesday night. Mr. Dunn addressed the well attended meeting for about an hour giving a brief history of the JBS which was started by Robert Welch in 1958. In addition, he highlighted some of their successful Conservative programs over the years; one of them being the 'Support your Local Police'. It was clear that many of the values of the Tea Party movement and the JBS are the same. These values are centered on the strict adherence to the U.S. Constitution. When the question was asked, "What event occurred that caused the JBS to have such bad image with the media?” Mr. Smart explained that, “There is no one event that caused their problems with the press.” He went on to say, “The JBS’s opposition to the Progressive agenda over the years has caused the Liberal media to try to discredit the JBS, much like they often do to the Tea Party groups.” Most recently, ABC’s attempt to tie the “Red Haired Joker” to the Tea Party movement. In fact, it is far more likely that James Holmes was associated with the Occupiers and, particularly, the Anarchist’s ‘Black Bloc’ activities. After the meeting was adjourned, members mingled to discuss the issues.

People in attendance traveled from Daytona Beach and Orange Park and all points in between according to a survey conducted. During the course of the evening, Esther Miller and Yvonne Heikkinen, active Town Crier Committee members, had conversation with Emily Morrow a reporter for ‘The Record.’ Ms. Morrow committed covering a Saturday Town Crier event in the near future. The Criers have been active for over a year in the historic area handing out Constitutions every weekend.

It is customary for Tea Party meetings to open with a ‘Pledge of Allegiance’ to the ‘Stars and Stripes’. We observed that a man, who identified himself as a medical doctor, explained that he could not salute the flag since the day that the Supreme Court ruled on Obamacare. He went on to say, “His profession and life work was willfully being destroyed by his own Government.” He was concerned with whether he was still welcome. The group assured him that he was. With the last of the three bodies of Government betraying the American People, with Washington politicians rapping themselves in ‘Old Glory’, it is not hard to understand the ‘Good Doctors’ behavior. When the trash, both Republican and Democrats, in Washington soil our colors, it is easy to understand. Many Tea Party members now carry the ‘Yellow Banner’. The ‘Don’t Tread on Me’ Gadsden flag is one of the first American Flags. Tea Party members do not honor the National Flag because of the current Government, but because of those who are, or have, fought and died for our Country and the flag. And, for sure, it is not Obama, Reid, Boehner or Roberts. They deserve no respect. None! But those who have carried the flag in battle and those who come home to our soil in flag draped coffins, that is who we honor. “The Revolutionary American flag speaks Truth to Power,” according to David Heimbold, Chairman of the SATP. He went on to say in conclusion that, “The JBS people commented that the SATP Tea Party is no ‘Republican Tea Party’; JBS has had experience with Republican Tea Parties elsewhere.”

Americans responded with ....We Agree!

The public shows their support with thumbs up, applause, salutes and, sometimes, all of these ways of showing their approval. However, today it was the words, “We agree.” The public would see the sign and then as they passed they would say, either, I agree or we agree. It was almost as if they had been scripted. This is not the first time the Criers have experienced various types of united response.

About two months ago, the Town Criers started carrying the ‘Big Red Sign’ pictured here.

Enthusiastic approval was received from the start. The acceptance continues to grow. If the population in the historic district of St. Augustine were fixed, the Town Criers could take credit for the expanding consent. The tourist population is not fixed; the people present each week are always new and different. So, one would have to conclude that agreement with the idea that Obama is a Communist is growing across the Country and the Town Criers are experiencing something that is outside of its activities. Perhaps the Obama's Roanoke quote, "If you've got a business—you didn't build that. Somebody else made that happen" shows Obama's collectivist vision and therefore the growing acceptance of the 'Big Red Sign'. "The Criers function is to report the trends and to awaken those we come in contact with," according to a Town Crier spokesman.
