Town Crier Committee Report Vol. 1 No 8

Who Celebrates May Day?

Communists, Socialists and Occupy Wall Street Activists

It was reported today that the Occupy Movement would be protesting in 125 cities across America. The goal of the protestors was to shut down the country. And, who are the organizers of these activities? According to the signs present at the demonstrations, the Occupy Movement is supported and organized by Communists, Socialists, Marxist Unions and other far left organizations.

There were no Occupier activities in St. Augustine this May Day.

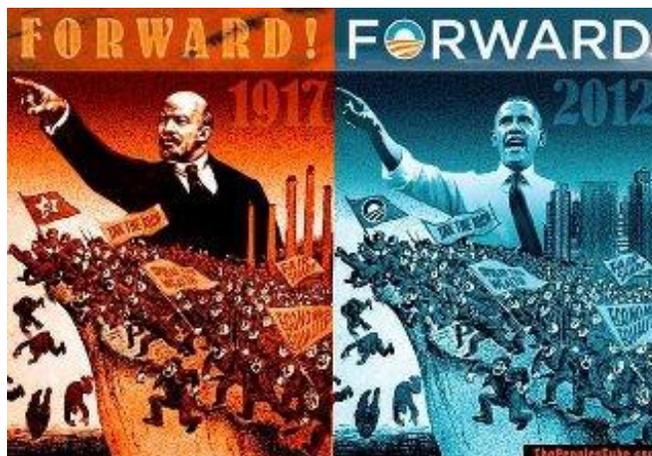

The Occupy St. Augustine group claims that they meet at the Plaza on Tuesdays and Saturdays, but no one has been observed since January 28th. The group was originally organized by the International Workers of the World (IWW) for the November 5, 2011 event. Though Terry Buchenmeyer of the IWW was interviewed by Peter Guinta of the St. Augustine Record as an organizer of Occupy St. Augustine movement, Mr. Guinta never disclosed the IWW connection and its Communist associations. A spokesman for the TCC said they expect the situation to develop and will report their findings. For now, all is quite in St. Augustine.

"We cannot expect Americans to jump from capitalism to Communism, but we can assist their elected leaders in giving Americans small doses of socialism until they suddenly awake to find they have Communism."

Soviet Leader Nikita Khrushchev, 1959

"America will never be destroyed from the outside. If we falter, and lose our freedoms, it will be because we destroyed ourselves."

Abraham Lincoln

Obama's new campaign slogan Forward, as in Lenin's Forward and Mao's "Great Leap Forward," shows Obama's true nature.

These two Communists leaders, Lenin and Mao, killed 60 million people.

In America one has the first amendment right to be a Communist.

However, when a Communist imposes his agenda into law without amending the Constitution, he violates the Constitution of the United States.

Town Criers Team up With Bear Witness on St. George Street

the SATP salutes our Cuban born American friends from Bear Witness and their passionate determination to preserve Liberty

Photos by TCC Staff

The Town Criers often meet Cuban born visitors in historic St. Augustine. Their enthusiasm for the Tea Party movement is always a joy to behold. And so it was when Teddy Garcia and Mr. Perez, both from the Bear Witness organization, joined with the Town Criers for their weekly defense of liberty. Those who have seen firsthand and lived under the tyranny of a socialist state have an appreciation for liberty that many native born Americas do not have. The Bear Witness group distributed information about the danger we Americans are facing from the Progressives and Communists. The Town Crier's cause is the same. The TCC distribute US Constitutions to the public to raise public awareness of the impending struggle. Bear Witness's 'Nobama' sticker campaign was a success as many of the public were displaying the anti Obama stickers on St. George Street. The TCC and Bear Witness plan future joint activities in St. Augustine.

Some people try to ignore the tyranny that presents itself daily from all levels of government. The woman shown on the right, however, expressed a great apprehension for the future of this country. She sees the assault by Obama on the American people with alarm.

Almost always, the creative dedicated minority has made the world better.

While 'Green' is not always a friend of the Tea Party, these students and their Teachers from Fort Lauderdale showed no hostility. It's not always the case with union teachers and their captive wards. When asked, "Where are you from?" The answers were, Tifton, Georgia, Atlanta, Georgia, North Carolina, Gainesville, Ocala, Jacksonville and many points in Northeast and Central Florida. And, what are the people saying? "NO WAY OBAMA", that's what the friendly people in these pictures are saying.

Remote WFOY Broadcast attracts County Commissioners

A remote broadcast, from Jack Wilson Buick GMC, attracted four County Commissioners. In attendance were Mark Miner, Cyndi Stevenson, Ron Sanchez and Ken Bryan. In addition four members of the SATP were present. Marty Miller and Doug Russo, both SATP members, joined the Tim Constantine Show. The SATP had been critical of the County Commissioners in the past over the budget process and tax increases. A low turnout, of the general public, promoted contact between the SATP and the Commissioners. Political conversation tended to be directed to the State and Federal level.

The Public lines up to photograph the Town Criers

Then the Criers photograph them!

Photos by TCC Staff

The Town Criers took to the streets again this weekend. As the readers of this report already know, the main mission of the Criers is the distribution of pocket editions of the Constitution. The weekly rounds of the Committee are beginning their second year of activity. When the Town Crier Committee was first formed, the SATP was under the control of the Republican State Committeeman, Randy Covington, and the leadership preferred a Republican image. As a result, the Town Criers did not carry the Tea Party signs that the public expected to see. After the REC leadership was forced out, the Committee took on additional protest activities. When the Occupiers came to St Augustine, the Town Criers started carrying signs typical to Tea Party fashion. Once the signs were added, the public started photographing the Criers. This has evolved into a major part of their activity. It is estimated that the Criers are photographed 500 to 1000 times per excursion. Considering social networking the potential positive image for the Tea Party Movement is considerable. There are other people on St. George Street dressed in period clothes. The re-enactors and pirates do not receive any way near the attention that the Tea Party gets.

The Tea Party Movement is Alive..... in the People

Bear Witness Returns

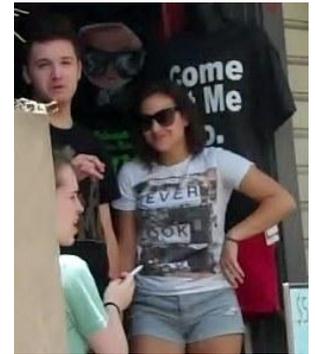

Teddy Garcia and his nephew, representing the Bear Witness Organization, join forces with the Town Criers.

The 'Nobama' sticker effort by Bear Witness proved to be very successful. When the Criers continued with their rounds to the Plaza, the People would see the 'Nobama' signs mounted on the flag poles and would come up and ask for the stickers. The public clearly wanted to demonstrate their contempt for Obama. The establishment media and the two parties continue to claim a close race. The People are saying anyone but Obama in mass.

Mystery Woman captured on camera

March 3, 2012 this publication did a special interest feature on a woman's protest of the Tea Party. Since then we believe that she has photographed the Town Criers from a distance. Today, a TCC staff member took a picture of, what looks like, 'the mystery woman'. We would like to interview her holding her 'Tea Party is Dead' sign. We appreciate her boldness and acknowledge her courage in confronting us surrounded by a weekly 'Paparazzi' of excited Tea Party enthusiasts.

Photos by TCC Staff

We support her First Amendment rights. We would like to have a picture of her holding her sign next to our "Obama is a Communist" sign as juxtaposition. Contact us.

Town Crier Committee's One Year Anniversary on the Streets of St. Augustine, FL

Photos by TCC Staff

Today is the one year anniversary of the TCC's first presence on St. George Street. On May 14, 2011 the SATP in Tees and with Flags participated in a walking parade which produced great acceptance by the general public. So on this date a year ago, as an experiment, Cindy Di Corrado and Lance Thate, pictured on the left, did a walk around with a Tea Party sign and a Gadsden flag on St. George Street. There are no known photos from May 2011 TCC activities. The photos shown here are from a TCC outing on Flag Day, June 14, 2011. Note that early TCC members Susan Godby and Judy Mabry are in Tees and Lance Thate is still without high socks. The Town Criers have developed over the past year into the most visible Tea Party presence in St. Johns County, Florida and now have a national exposure though the numerous photos taken by the public who travel here from all over the Country. The TCC Chairman, Lance Thate, expressed his deep appreciation to all those who have given so much to this Committee.

Marielena Stuart packs the SATP Membership Meeting

Republican US Senatorial Candidate featured Speaker at SATP's Membership Meeting

Photos by TCC Staff

The Saint Augustine Tea Party (SATP) held its regular membership meeting at the Village Inn on May 22, 2012. The featured speaker was Marielena Stuart a Republican candidate for the US Senate. Mrs. Stuart addressed an attentive audience which filled the room. Mrs. Stuart's message was a warning that the two political parties are leading America down the road to Marxism and a 'New World Order'. Marielena and her family have firsthand experience living in a Communist society in Cuba. As a result, she understands the methods, such as 'Agenda 21', used to transform a country to Communism. An extensive question and answer session followed. In attendance were representatives of Fair Tax, Bear Witness, Putnam County and Molasses Junction Tea Parties. Not in attendance were the local media, REC members, local Candidates, and elected officials, though all were invited. Spokesmen for the Tea Party suggested that grassroots Tea Parties, like the SATP, may well give birth to a new majority party in the future. After the formal meeting, was closed the question and answers continued to near the closing time for the Village Inn. Marielena Stuart was well received by the people in attendance.

Town Crier Committee's Anniversary observed with a brief History of its first year at the General Meeting

TCC Chairman, Lance Thate, provided a brief history of the TCC's activities over the past year to acknowledge the Committee's first year. The members and guests showed interest and enthusiasm for the activities of the Town Criers. The evolution of the signs carried by TCC members was presented. Those in attendance enjoyed the presentation. The sign shown left was offered to members as a proposed sign in a line of anti-Obama signs. It was announced that it would soon be displayed to the general public. Those present appeared to like the bold statement. The Chairman reported that he got the idea when the Democrats, the Republicans and the 'Media' agreed that to bring out Obama's past was not a good campaign strategy. The TCC totally disagrees with them and the TCC plans to use the new sign over the Memorial Day weekend.

Town Criers out on Memorial Day weekend

The question this Memorial Day is will Americans turn over this Country to the very people our Armed Forces fought against?

Based on the number of people who approved this sign on St. George Street this weekend, the answer is HELL NO. The TCC has displayed anti-Obama signs in the past which have proved to be effective. This sign is what the public has been waiting for according to a TCC spokesman. They know, in their guts, who Obama is. The Press won't tell them. The Republicans are afraid to tell them. So, it is up to the Tea Parties. "What is really great is that the people are willing to stand up," said Dave Heimbold. "People taking pictures of the Criers with their loved ones and then declaring that their intent is to put the pictures on Facebook, that takes courage," Heimbold continued.

Open Letter to US House of Representatives by KrisAnne Hall

Dear Mr. Boehner, Mr. McConnell, et. al;

Our federal government is out of control. It is not the role of the federal government to regulate the daily lives of the citizens. It is not the role of the federal government to regulate domestic commerce. It is not the role of the federal government to tell farmers what to grow, nor tell people what to eat. It is not the role of the federal government to dictate the education of our children. It is not the job of the federal government to trespass into state criminal investigations.

It is not the role of the federal government to control our rural or municipal affairs; yet, the President has now established federal councils for both rural affairs (Executive Order 13575—Establishment of the White House Rural Council June 9, 2011) and municipal affairs (Executive Order-- Establishing a White House Council on Strong Cities, Strong Communities May 1, 2012). Russia called these councils the “sovyet” and they are the final building blocks to communism. It is not the role of the Federal government to be the people’s nanny.

It’s not the role of the Federal government to spend this nation into oblivion. Pardon me if I do not get excited about your current budget debate. That drama has outlived itself, and I say let the government shut down for a while; we might buy a few more days of life for our Constitution. I am also not impressed by your resolution on foreign affairs, encouraging “democracies” in foreign nations, while our republic is being actively destroyed by its own government.

It is your role, Congress, to stop the Executive encroachment into the Legislature and it is your duty to stop the Federal encroachment upon individual Liberty. Our founders took great care when creating a federal government that would be limited and always in submission to the states and the people. WHEN is Congress going to take a real stand against the destruction of the rights and privileges of this people? Will you wait until it’s too late? Mere “outrage” doesn’t get the job done. This Congress is pushing the nation to a point of turmoil it has not seen for 150 years. And make no mistake; each and every one of you will be personally responsible for what will occur. Are you prepared to live with that responsibility and those consequences? It will not fall on the shoulders of the President alone and the blame game will not alleviate the suffering of our children when they are so grievously affected. Yet, we can avoid repeating the mistakes of our history. But we must act now. We must act decisively. If not, we will regret our neglect. We have the opportunity now, but have no guarantee it will be available much longer.

Does Congress truly understand WHY people fled communist nations to come to the greatest nation in the world? Do you truly know the cost of such sacrifice and what you are supposed to be defending? You are fooling yourselves if you think one more election is going to fix it. You don’t have that kind of time. The blocks are in place, and you have provided the mortar. Take a stand now. Not a political stand, but a stand that involves integrity, courage, and resolve. No more petitions asking the president to stop stealing legislative power. No more demands that Eric Holder resign. YOU must do your job and YOU must defend this nation and it’s Constitution from these enemies, both foreign and domestic. You must:

1. Put an end to the executive order madness. Exercise your constitutionally given power, as provided through the checks and balances and separation of powers. Show this nation that you understand that Legislative power is not to be shared and it is definitely NOT to be taken.
2. We are not subjects of the United Nations and never intend to be. Get them out of our business.
3. If you are unwilling to impeach, defund any person appointed by the executive branch outside Congressional and Constitutional authority. (i.e. all the Christmas appointments and Czars)
4. Pick up your Congressional oversight responsibility and shut down these executive regulatory agencies whose only purpose is to “harass our people, and eat out their substance.”
5. Get control of the immigration in this nation. We don’t want to see GAO reports telling us that the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the State Department cannot agree on the degree of terrorist association a visa applicant must have to render the applicant ineligible.
6. It is time to indict Eric Holder for the criminal that he is. No more whining, no more demanding for resignations, INDICT him and then FIRE him.
7. Impeach Elena Kagan. She is obviously incapable of using the appropriate professional ethic and judgment needed to be a Supreme Court Justice. Learn from this mistake and actually involve yourselves in the confirmation process. Your employers are sick to death of political games.
8. Repeal The Federal Restricted Buildings and Grounds Improvement Act. Now. You are supposed to be protecting the rights of the people, not violating them.
9. End the 4th amendment violations permitted in the Patriot Act. Now.
10. Repeal sections 1021 & 1022 of NDAA 2012. It’s not only about habeas corpus, it’s about
 - a. unilateral power given to the president by congress to determine who is a terrorist and then detain them in secret with no probable cause;

- b. unilateral power given to the president by congress to invoke the laws of war during a “hostility”;
 - c. unilateral power given to the president by congress to transfer the power under the laws of war to “domestic agencies fighting terrorists”
11. Get the IRS out of the passport business.

12. Don't just read the Constitution, study it. Not how you studied it in law school, that wasn't the Constitution, that was Constitutional Law, there is a huge difference. Those of you who went to Harvard, we understand if you don't know what the Constitution is, it hasn't been studied there in years. May I suggest a course that I know will teach you the truth and is so simple a Congressman can understand it. I happen to know the teacher personally and I am sure that she would come teach it at her own expense and sacrifice. Interested? Click Here

These are some of the demands of your employers; we demand you do your job. These are the requirements of our founders; they have entrusted us with the Liberty purchased with their lives. These are the duties imposed upon you by the Constitution of the United States, and your obligations consistent with the oaths you took. And, these are the times that try men's souls. How will history remember us? The generation that participated in death of Liberty or the generation that gave our last breath to prosper it? I have made my choice. How will you choose?

Sincerely,
