Commissioner Bennett Holds Town Hall Meeting

Halloween's Beggars night came early for several SJC residents attending District 5 County Commissioner, Rachel Bennett's "Tell Me About It" Town Hall meeting Thursday night, October 29, 2015, at the main library on US 1 North. The room filled as Commissioner Bennett casually propped herself on a folding table for a 2 hour session.

Residents were not bashful in telling the Commissioner all about their want lists. They wanted increases in the Sunshine bus routes, including one from Murabella to the Avenues Mall, so kids could ride the bus in lieu of parents driving them; internet in a rural 15 home neighborhood; subsidized affordable housing in the World Golf Village area and Federal government subsidized water and sewer improvements in West Augustine.

Commissioner Bennett proudly introduced a local developer who is building/renovating a rundown old hotel in Vilano Beach, turning it into a beautiful new hotel. The developer said Bennett was a big help in removing and relocating families who had been living in the existing run down hotel which is getting the facelift. Bennett boasted that she remembered certain stubborn residents who refused to leave because they had a dog and there was nowhere to go with a dog.

While there were those in attendance who were aware that the County Commissioners voted to apply for Federal grant money to pay for these home improvements and wish list items, there was also an equal number of St. Augustine Tea Party members in attendance to interfere with Bennett's desire to hand out the Halloween treats.

Local Tea Party member, Kelly Lorbeer cautioned Bennett asking, “Are you aware that accepting Community Development Block Grants from the Federal government requires the county to build HUD housing in the middle of suburban neighborhoods?” Bennett’s reply was that she was not aware.

Joe Ryan, also a Tea Party member, agreed and interjected, “It’s called Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing. Under the Federal guidelines, communities that receive Federal monies from HUD must create policies that meet the strict guidelines set forth by the Federal government.”

“It looks like Rachel Bennett needs to get up to speed on the strings attached to HUD grant money before the County Commission votes to tangle the suburbs in this mess. Perhaps the Commissioner is not concerned with Federal influence in local affairs.” Lorbeer added. Bennett's next “Tell Me About It” Town Hall is scheduled from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM on November 19, 2015 at the St Johns County Northwest Annex, 725 Flora Branch Blvd., St Johns 32259.

Communist Infiltration Nearly Complete

Photos by TCC Staff

Over 100 years of Deception

Teddy Roosevelt, believing that certain private citizens had too much power over elected officials, started the “Progressive Party”. It was the beginning of the transformation of the Republic to a democracy. [The word democracy does not appear in the entire body of the Constitution.]

The Progressive Movement has a contempt and loathing of "individualism" and its political expression in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. The progressive movement is not a populace or grassroots movement. Its origins come from within the world of academia. Woodrow Wilson was the first progressive president. The Communists infiltrated the Progressive Movement from the very beginning. When the progressives lost their popularity, the Communists renamed themselves. They choose the term 'Liberal', stealing the very name of the philosophy that gave birth to "Individual Liberty" and the American Constitution. The Progressive infiltration is now nearly complete in every facet of American society. But, there is a dark truth which they must hide, they are an extreme minority and are not supported by a broad spectrum of Americans. That is not to say that they are not very influential, for they are. The Communists dominate the government, the media, the entertainment industry, the leadership of both political parties and, of course, the university systems. The Communist presence and its deception have been protected by the skillful application of "Political Correctness" (PC). "The "Politically Correct" term for a Communist these days is "Progressive". And their goal is the transformation of America from a Capitalist System into a Marxist State," according to the Town Criers.

The Town Criers, a committee of the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP), have been conducting a war on Political Correctness for the past four years. The Town Criers engage the public in the Historic District of St. Augustine, Florida, on a regular basis. The SATP has the opportunity to engage a National audience on St. George Street that changes daily.

So called, "Conservative Republicans" blindly follow the (R) and cringe before their RINO leadership in the name of "Party Loyalty". They are terrified by what the media might say of them if they associate with the Tea Party. They live in a world of PC. Some former Republican members of the SATP, in the beginning, were absolutely convinced that Town Crier activities would embarrass the GOP. They simply would not fight back against the Communist transformation. So, it was when the Town Criers first started carrying non-PC signage on St. George Street such as, "OBAMA IS A COMMUNIST" and "HILLARY FOR PRISON", pictured above. The GOP leadership hates it, but the American public loves it. Case in point: Donald Trump's "Meteoric Rise" in popularity for simply speaking up and speaking out.

Americans hunger for the truth. A politically incorrect sign is like a blinding beacon of truthfulness in a night of darkness. "We are not the Silent Majority. We are Samuel Adam's progeny, starting brush fires in the minds of men", claims Lance Thate, the founder of the Town Criers in St. Augustine.

“We can’t do it all. It is too big a job for a single group with our limited capacities, but we do our part. We love to see the public coming alive at the sight of the Gadsden flags, colonial dress and in-your-face politically incorrect signs.” The public literally comes alive with cheers and applause as they greet the Criers. Invigorated Americans take pictures of themselves with the Criers, which they instantly send around the Country on their smart phones. “Americans are waking up, for sure”, a St. Augustine Tea Party volunteer said. This weekend the Town Criers made an appearance on St. George Street with five volunteers. Kelly Lorbeer made her first appearance as a Town Crier. Mrs. Lorbeer expressed surprise at the enthusiastic reception she received from the public. Mrs. Lorbeer wore a SATP T-shirt, carried a full size Gadsden flag and a sign which stated, “Hillary for Prison... Benghazi”. “She was an instant success with the public”, her fellow volunteers declared. “Too bad the Congressional staff of Rep. Ron DeSantis (R) has been forbidden to join in the celebration of the re-birth of America, just a stone’s throw from his District 6 office.”

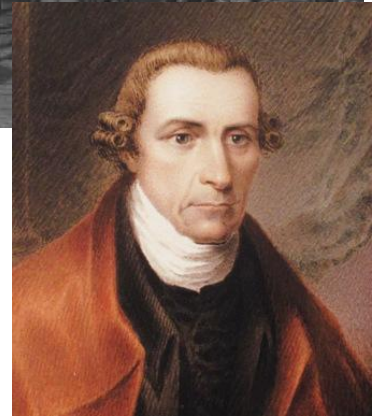

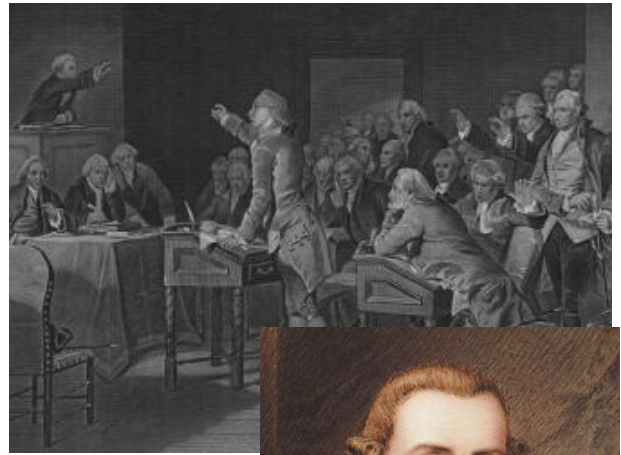

There’s a Crack in the Wall of Political Correctness

There was a time when a candidate for public office, had to play to a monopolistic media and the game was all about PC. Alternative news sources, such as Internet reporting in the Breitbart style, with instant access via smart phones, is destroying the propaganda that the Communists attempt to project. For examples, this attack on political correctness, look at the recent Republican debates. When Fox news tried to destroy Trump for the GOP, with their PC attack, Trump surged in the polls to a firm first place. Then Carson, with a different style and a reverence for the Constitution, began an attack on PC and he moved up in the polls to a firm second place. When Ted Cruz took on the moderators at CNBC, NBC was knocked out of the game completely for future debates and Cruz gained in the polls. The traditional GOP candidates still playing the PC game are gaining no traction. The Town Criers report that Communists hate to be exposed and they are not use to being confronted. “The intellectuals do not like to be called ignorant, but then, what are you, if you can’t even apply common sense”? a Town Crier exclaimed. “When they call you a racist or crazy, are you supposed to run away? Maybe that’s what the silent majority would do! That era is over! It’s the Tea Party, Baby, and we’re not silent.” The “Sons of Liberty” are going to drive a tank through the crack in the wall of PC.”

Patrick Henry delivers his “Call to Arms” to Local Tea Party

On March 23, 1775, Patrick Henry delivered the most famous Call to Arms in American history. During a meeting of the Second Virginia Convention, at St. John’s Church in Richmond, the 38-year-old patriot gave an impassioned plea urging Virginia to form militias to defend itself against the British. Henry’s brief address, which closed with the incendiary line “Give me liberty or give me death!” won over the Convention and his words became a rallying cry for revolution.

On November 10, 2015, reenactor, Jerry Cameron performed the Call to Arms for the St. Augustine Tea Party. Patrick Henry’s message is inspiring even to this day.

Mr. Cameron, in after meeting comments, suggested that the grievances, listed in the Declaration of Independence, against the British in 1776 are miniscule compared to the grievances against the Federal intervention today. Mr. Cameron has announced that he is standing as a candidate for St. John’s County Commission, District 3. He said that he will run on a platform of limited government, lower taxes and fiscal responsibility.

Welcome to Florida, Mr. Bush

Results of the latest St. George Street Poll

The St. Augustine Tea Party's Town Criers have been conducting random sample Presidential polls on St. Augustine's historic St. George Street since the beginning of the year. The demographic is national in scope. The results of a poll taken November 7, 2015 are as follows:

- Trump 50%
- Carson 38%
- Bush 09%
- None 03%

Attempting to evaluate the Floridian vote, a random poll was taken at a St. Augustine Farmer's Market on November 11, 2015. The demographic of this poll was local. Only Republicans who reside in Florida were eligible to vote in the GOP primary participated. The results are as follows:

- Trump 40%
- Carson 32%
- Bush 14%
- None 14%

Bush Not Likely to Carry Florida

Prior St. George Street polls have always included Jeb Bush because he is clearly the choice of the Republican leadership. However, the public seems extremely resistant to having another Bush in the White House. From the polling data that we have acquired, it appears extremely unlikely that the former Governor of Florida could carry his home state.

Is Trump for Real?

Donald Trump is an astute businessman who has connected with “We the People” and the Tea Party movement. His “Make America Great Again” has resonated with the great American majority.

Has “The Donald” created a new product which appeals to the conservative base or is he expressing long held values and ideas? If the latter be true, it adds to his credibility. If not, it would add to the claim that he is a showman using this opportunity. An Oprah Winfrey interview, from over twenty-five years ago, shows a long standing conviction.

SATP Salutes the St. Augustine Police Dept. for their Service

On November 24, 2015 the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP), at an open meeting, conducted at the Village Inn in St.

Augustine, Florida, paid tribute to the St. Augustine Police Department for their service to the community. Pictured above is a presentation of a plaque given to Police Officer Chris Miller. The award was presented by SATP Chairman Lance Thate to Officer Miller who was designated officer of the year by the SAPD. The Tea Party wished to show their support for law enforcement in an era that seems so hostile to those in blue who serve and protect. The St. Augustine Tea Party has been active in this area for over five years. It is fitting that this first award being presented is to St. Augustine Police Department because at least 90% of our Tea Party activity takes place within their jurisdiction. The relationship between our Tea Party volunteers and law enforcement has been one of mutual respect.

Photos by TCC Staff

Prior to the presentation Chairman Thate made the following observations. Today, it appears that the police are under attack across the nation. The media is quick to promote the idea that the law enforcement is at fault and not worthy of public support. Frequently, the race card is played. The current administration, often, takes sides against those charged with maintaining the law. There is an alienation process at work separating the police and the people they serve. With a community organizer in the White House and his legions of Saul Alinsky-ites in the streets, organizations such as the "Occupiers", "We are the 99" and most recently, "Black lives Matter" have been created to agitate and disrupt.

The Town Criers, a Committee of the SATP, engaged the Occupiers here in St. Augustine in 2011. The "Occupy St. Augustine" movement was organized by communists, and anarchists which has been the pattern throughout the country. [Though, the St. Augustine Record used more politically correct terms for the organizers here.] On their biggest day the Town Criers were outnumbered ten to one. The Criers took verbal abuse because they would not join the Occupier event. After attempting an occupation over a two month period, the Occupier numbers were reduced to one while Town Criers numbers remained unchanged. During the entire period the Town Criers stood their ground without incident. The Tea Party fights a war against political correctness.

Back then Occupiers would carry signs that asked the question, "Liberals, is it Okay to Riot Yet?" Apparently organizers have given its okay. Civil unrest and riots come to mind in places like Ferguson and Baltimore. The police officers have come into the crosshairs of those who wish to transform America.

For the left to succeed in the transformation of America, they will have to disrupt local law enforcement. The US Attorney General has recently announced the “Strong City Network”, which crosses international borders and would necessitate UN involvement for law enforcement. Liberty will not reside in a transformed America envisioned by those promoting the Marxist ideology.

“The time has come for the great majority of “We the People” to embrace our Constitutional Republic. Our Republic did not envision a federal police force. Law enforcement was constructed to be administered locally within designated jurisdictions. That model has served us well for over 220 years. We are fortunate to live in a community where the police force has demonstrated its resolve to protect the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America,” Mr. Thate said.

Attorney Malcolm Anthony Featured SATP Speaker

Local attorney Malcolm Anthony was the featured speaker of the evening. Mr. Anthony recently announced his candidacy for the US House of Representatives, district 6.

Anthony Demands a Return to Constitutional Law

Mr. Anthony made an impassioned plea to confine the federal government to the constitutional limits envisioned by the founders. He exposed executive and judicial abuses so prevalent in Washington today. With a Congress which refuses to assert itself, we have reached a dangerous point in our history. He expressed a desire to go to Washington to try and rectify the situation. Anthony has been supportive of the SATP’s First Amendment struggles. His wife, Andrea Anthony, is also an outspoken advocate of the First Amendment.

Clearly, the members of the SATP were supportive of his remarks as revealed in the question and answers session that followed.

The meeting was concluded with the usual straw poll for presidential contenders. The SATP membership continues to vote along the lines of the national polls with Trump, Cruz and Carson the preferences.

Time to get rid of the IRS

It is time to get rid of the IRS and the US government's involvement in charity. They alone are responsible for the distortions above. It should be noted that of all the five offending charities, the greatest offender is the UN's UNICEF. American citizens can choose who they give to except for UNICEF. American taxpayers are forced to support the world organization. The greatest offender on the list above (See highlighted) is the one where the American taxpayer has no choice.
