DIVERSIFYING SUBURBS:
Obama's housing chief plans this fall to implement a new rule giving Section 8 welfare recipients enough money to afford rent wherever they choose, with the goal of driving them into affluent suburbs. Section 8 tenants who choose to stay in the city will lose subsidies.

The regime is gearing up for a massive resettlement of urban poor — more than 350,000 initially, followed by as many of the rest of the 2.2 million Section 8 tenants as they can push out of cities — all to end what the left calls "American apartheid."

If landlords fight the massive social experiment to racially and economically — not to mention politically — integrate the suburbs, they'll be sued for discrimination. And if counties and municipalities fight it, they'll lose millions in federal funding.

Obama is showing his radical roots in his final days in office. But if you think this is bad, just wait. His most dangerous days are yet to come.

HUD, Diversity and the Loss of Liberty

Federal grant money is to local government as predatory lending practices are to individuals. The funds are provided as a tease and then, down the road a little, the hook is set. Any businessman who has dealt with the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) understands that any agreement with HUD is a living and breathing arrangement that can be changed at will by the Federal Government. A good example of a HUD 'agenda driven' abuse was published in the Palm Beach Post, shown left. HUD grants are like a giant spider web, whose function is to trap Liberty.

Recently, the St. Johns County Commissioners and the City of St. Augustine Beach Commissioners combined jurisdictions to meet a population requirement so that they would qualify for a HUD grant. The entire process was done with under a stealthy cloak. If the funds had been demanded by the public or if the money were evenly distributed among the taxpayers, such as a reduction in property taxes, perhaps, there might be some merit. This is not the case; the funds will be distributed by local politicians to individuals who like, need and adore government. The real issue is the growth of government.

These Commissioners are either stupid or deceptive. They will tell you that they are bringing back the tax dollars, to the local government that local citizens paid to the Federal Treasury. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Tax dollars that were paid to the Federal Treasury were exhausted through paying the interest on the national debt and essential services. Grant money is funded with debt, debt that reduces the public's purchasing power and steals from everyone who saves. The debt is undermining our economy and our nation. Local politicians are complicit with the Federal intrusion and theft of Liberty.

Time is Running Out

The Progressives will have to Strike Soon

The burden of Communism placed upon the world stage during the 20th century was largely the result of violent revolutionary tactics. China in the late 40s, Cuba in the 50s, Vietnam in the 60s, Central and South America in the 70s and 80s come to mind. This world view of revolution, led by the workers of the world, was the way Karl Marx envisioned the progression to Communism.

After Marx's death, a new tactic was conceived mainly by intellectuals. Its key feature is the concept of "gradualism" influencing cultural norms and organizations. Communism imposed one step at a time, if you will, from the top down. This new tactic was promoted by the Fabian Socialists in England and the Progressives in America. It is important that Americans understand the Progressive approach because Hillary Clinton, a US Presidential candidate, professes to be a Progressive as defined in the 1920s.

A Progressive of the 1920s would be defined as a Communist, who is employing the technique of incremental change, and uses every means possible to conceal his or her identity as a Communist. The Fabian symbols, shown here, are taken from George Bernard Shaw's stained-glass window which now resides at the London School of Economics. The symbol, upper left, of "A wolf in sheep's clothing" with the letters FS, emphasizes the need to conceal the true Communist identity from the Fabian, or the Progressive image. The St. Augustine Tea Party's Town Crier Committee, which engages the public in the streets, has amassed the insight into the behavior of the leftist trying to hide their Communist selves. On occasion, a full-blown Communist will get in the face of the Town Criers, screaming and waving his arms, trying to solicit support from the public. That support never comes. A Town Crier, in that situation, need only, in a quiet and restrained voice, identify the Progressive's true identity as a Communist. At which point, the offending individual departs in great haste. So important is this cardinal rule of deception to the Progressive that they scurry away after being exposed.

The photo shown above was taken by Seph Lawless, of an abandoned factory in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. It represents the results of Globalization and the in-roads of 100 years of Progressivism in America. Even while Ronald Reagan was talking about "Morning in America", his Vice Pres. George Walker Bush was plotting America's downfall with the "New World Order" (NWO) globalists. During the progressive administrations of George Walker Bush, Bill and Hillary Clinton, George W Bush and now, Barack Hussein Obama, the Communist agenda has marched "Forward".

The Tea Party Movement, based on smaller Constitutional government and Capitalism, put a stumbling block in the process. And now, Donald Trump, not a Tea Party candidate, may well put an additional stumbling block to the process because he is a nationalist, as opposed to a globalist. The Fabian's turtle icon represents the incremental change technique. The words underneath, "When I strike. I strike hard" is foreboding. The Tea Party and Trump's emergence on the scene are the only movements holding back the tide of the NWO. The Progressives have a hundred years invested and are running out of time. If the Communists strike, it will be hard. Please like our Face Book page. <https://www.facebook.com/towncrier2010/>

Trump Wins Again!

Labor Day is Exhausting for Hillary

Somehow the myth of Hillary Clinton's invincibility seems to evaporate in the Florida sun. Once again Donald Trump beat Hillary in a one-on-one focus poll among tourists on St. George Street in St. Augustine, Florida on September 5th, 2016. Labor Day was the day of reckoning according to the establishment Northeast media merchants. But it was nothing new for the Town Criers, who have been doing national polling for the last 20 months on the ever increasingly popular, St. George Street, located in the 451 year old City. A steady stream of tourists interfaced with the pollsters as the tourists strolled down the narrow shop-laden lane. They can't help seeing the hand held sign that asks "Who Would You Vote For", Trump or Hillary? The poll is a face to face random selection.

The poll results on this Labor Day were:

TRUMP 62%

HILLARY 17%

NEITHER 21%

It is no surprise to the Town Crier pollsters that Trump won again. Trump has never lost a contest in the last 15 months. It just seems that the so called Main Stream Media has been asking the wrong questions or is just plain lying. What do you think?

Five Flags Flying

Five volunteers of the St. Augustine Tea Party's Town Crier Committee made an appearance, on September 10, 2016, in the historic district of St. Augustine, Florida. The Town Criers have been engaging the public in this fashion since 2011. Five full-size Gadsden flags flying among the people on the narrow streets in the historic district truly get attention.

Photos by TCC Staff

Comments like, "I really like that flag," and, "Awesome, wow, these flags are amazing," could be heard today. The Gadsden flag has been the symbol of the Tea Party since the Tea Party's inception. The Obama administration through one of its agencies, The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, is suggesting that "The don't tread on me" Gadsden flag is racist. The Gadsden flag is an honorable revolutionary flag and was flown before Betsy Ross's Stars and Stripes flag was ever created. The bright yellow flag is also associated with the US Marine Corps.

Tea Party Signs the Big Winner

What really gets the public involved with the Town Crier volunteers are their politically incorrect and politically aggressive signs. People line up to photograph them. In addition, the public is eager to be photographed holding the signs. Family group pictures are shown above. . There was even talk of using the photographs on Christmas cards. This weekend, the theme was Hillary Clinton's criminality. "Our St. George Street polls reveal that the public, in mass, believe that Hillary Clinton should be indicted." "No one believes the Justice Department is doing its job," Lance Thate Tea Party Chairman said.

Hillary's Old Time Communist Line not Winning the Young Vote

Photos by TCC Staff

Perhaps Hillary Clinton's claim on America's youth is in error. For some time now, young people have found the Town Criers more than just a bunch of neocons. Today was no exception. The sorority girls from a nearby university campus, pictured above, found it very amusing that we should save "Gitmo" for Hilary. "Save Gitmo for Hilary" was the most popular sign of the day. These young people pictured here are not of the same caliber that Fox News' Jesse Watters finds for his "Watters World". Maybe Jesse is driven by ratings. The Town Criers are driven by the truth.

Reflective of this rejection of Hillary by the millennium generation is revealed by the Town Crier, visit to the campus of the University of North Florida (UNF), on September 3, 2015. A poll taken that day on the UNF campus revealed in a three-way race:

Bush	34%
Trump	34%
Hillary	13%
None of the above	19%

Remembering 911 Attack

It has been said that the attack on the Twin Towers and the Pentagon was equivalent to the attack on Pearl Harbor, which precipitated World War II.

On December 7, 1941, our military assets were at a level that reflected a nation at peace and that was determined to remain isolationists. On December 8, 1941, a united country began a struggle to destroy totalitarian forces across the face of the globe. Four years and eight months later, Americans reached total victory.

On September 11, 2001 our military assets were supreme in the world, and the dedication of our military personnel was every bit as enthusiastic as the military heroes of World War II. On September 12, 2001 a united country began a struggle to destroy Islamic Terrorism. 15 years later, that effort has been a failure.

A Failure in Leadership

So why have we failed to defeat an enemy far weaker than the combined totalitarian forces of World War II? In 1941 it was an American can-do attitude. In 2001 the American nationalism has been replaced by the globalist view of a New World order. The continuum of George Walker Bush, William Clinton, George W. Bush and Barack Hussein Obama has had goals other than victory. American interests have been pushed aside in the name of globalization. If victory had been our goal, had we defined our enemy and had we pursued that enemy with the full force of our military capacity victory would have occurred long ago. That did not happen.

God Bless the Victims

On this 15th anniversary of 9/11, we pray for the victims who fell on that day and, for their families. We pray for the valiant effort of those military personnel who have been betrayed by their civilian leadership. We pray that America will survive those who would reduce America to world of serfdom.

City Plays Politics with the First Amendment

The St. Augustine Beach Commissioners

held a meeting at City Hall, 2200 A1A South

Photos by TCC Staff

St. Augustine Beach, Florida. The meeting was called to order at 6:00 PM on the September 12, 2016. The public attending were greeted by members of the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP). The Tea Party positioned themselves at the entrance with signs and full-size Gadsden flags. The Tea Party was protesting the removal of political signs from public lands in St. Augustine Beach, Florida. Thomas Reynolds, a frequent visitor at Commissioners meetings, told the Tea Party that originally the sign ordinance was on the agenda. He suggested that it was taken off when they discovered that the Tea Party would be present. We have not confirmed this. However, there were about 10 to 12 people speaking during the public comments part of the agenda. All but one addressed the First Amendment issue created by the Commissioners actions. Dr. Michael Pawlowski, a Republican activist, suggested that the Commissioners read "Profiles in Courage" by JFK and then do what is right. Pawlowski challenged the legal premise that the Commissioners relied on and announced that he was considering legal action against the City. The majority of speakers, however, were members of the SATP.

Lance Thate, SATP Chairman, in an impassioned plea alleged, "You cannot have life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness... without political free speech." He reminded the Commissioners of their oath of office, citing their obligation to, "Preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies foreign and domestic." Continuing, he said, "Search your souls, your behavior regarding political free speech is the same behavior that domestic enemies would use." Mr. Thate provided each Commissioner with a copy of the Constitution, suggesting that clearly they had a poor understanding of it. In addition, a copy of TCCR article that broke the protest story was provided. TCCR article was picked up by Historic City News and received favorable mention in the St Augustine Record.

David Heimbold, SATP Media Chairman, helped define domestic enemies when he cited Senator Joe McCarthy's famous line, "Are you, or have you ever been a member of the Communist Party?" He reminded the Commissioners that candidates were injured by their actions, and that the City may well be exposed to future lawsuits. The Tea Party believes that the Commissioners interfered with the election process. "Political Correctness" (PC) is not part of the SATP's vocabulary. They have conducted a war on PC for the past 5 years. While the Tea Party only had five members in the audience, the response for the public comment speakers was overwhelming support.

Tale of Two Signs

Self Serving Beach Commissioners Trounce Political Free-Speech

Photos by TCC Staff

The two signs, pictured here are signs that were placed at City Hall. The location of both signs is at the East entrance to the parking lot. The sign on the right was swapped for the sign on the left using the same sign pole. The sign on the right was in place on August 23, 2016, when the Tea Party began its protest demonstrations. The sign on the left was in place on September 12, 2016 the night of the Commissioner's meeting. It is not clear as to what date the swap took place. This is a continuing story, perhaps, that will become clear later.

What this juggling act does show is the Commissioner's compulsive need to control the election in their jurisdiction. When this business with signs started, the clear target of the Commissioners was political speech.

They were not targeting temporary garage sale signs that appear from time to time in the public right-of-way. It is interesting that the city attorney, James P Wilson had a justification for the sign swap without ever mentioning the signs.

Mr. Wilson advised the Commissioners that they could not regulate the content of the signs. The implication being that if you will allow political signs, you must also allow controversial signs. The Commissioners rather than risking controversial signs, which has never occurred to date, preferred to eliminate all signs. This effectively eliminates public comment and expression on all public lands.

This progressive tactic, progressive the "Politically Correct" term for Communist, has been applied by the left, across the country. Locally, this same argument removed the American Flags from the "Bridge of Lions" in St. Augustine, Florida. If you flew the "American Flag" it is possible that someone might wish to fly a "Gay Rainbow Flag". So the solution is banning all Flags. Using "Political Correctness" to curb free speech is a tactic that originated in the Soviet Union.

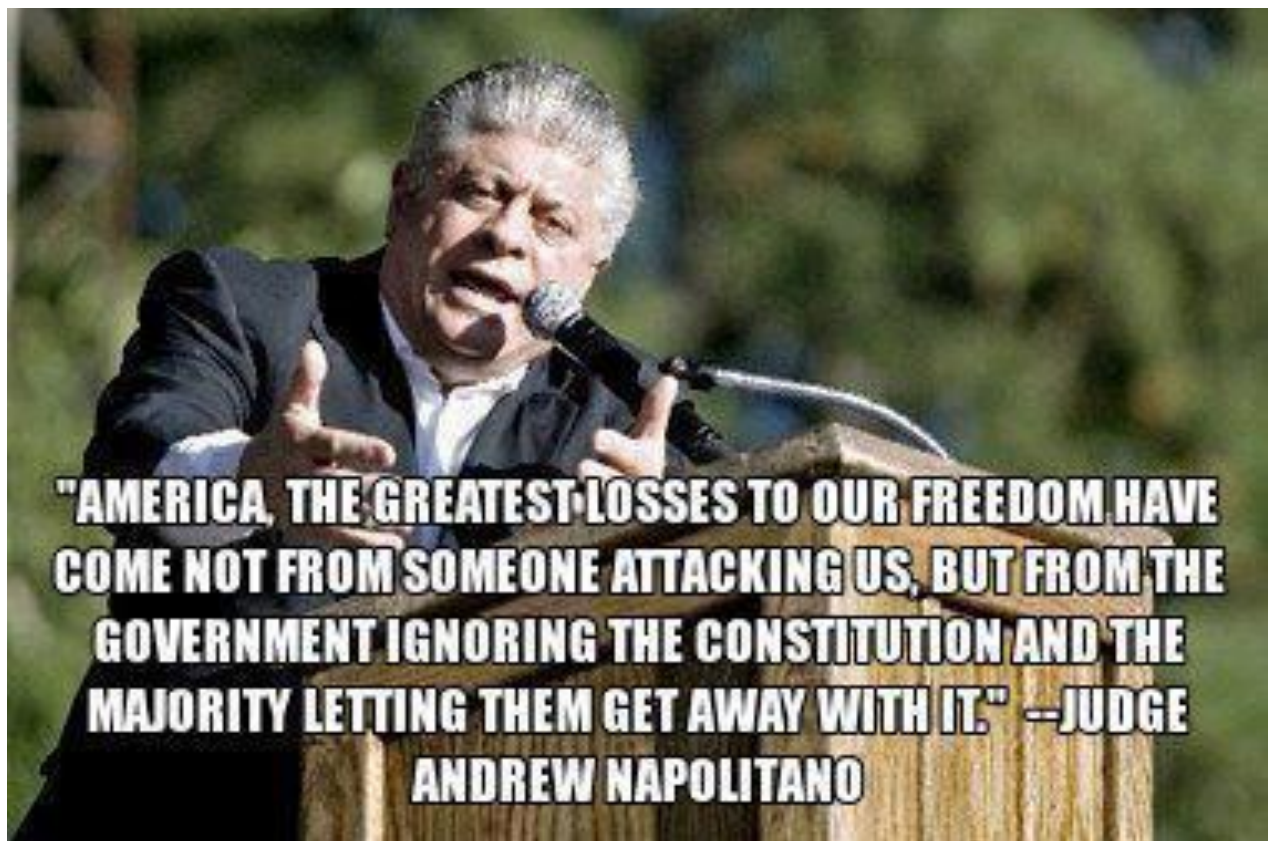

"The removal and prohibition of political signs, greatly benefits the incumbent candidates. Challengers with less name recognition are at a great disadvantage if they cannot use political signs, Rosetta Bailey, a candidate for Commissioner of St. Augustine Beach commented." "These self-serving Commissioners cannot be allowed suppress free speech and sway or control elections,"

Jerry Cameron, a candidate for County Commissioner, who lost a primary bid by seven votes, reports that his campaign volunteer was prohibited from putting signs at City Hall by a city employee. When the volunteer objected, pointing to numerous other signs, the city employee indicated they will be removed.

On Sunday August 21st the signs were gone

The St. Augustine Beach Civic Association and the City Commissioners have a close working relationship. There are reports that members of the Civic Association have used intimidation and even violence against people who wish to exercise their First Amendment rights. An example, an older man was pushed around, his sign broken up, and later charged with stalking, which proved to be contrived, after he was placed in jail. The St. Augustine Tea Party has also been challenged by hateful people representing the Civic Association at Pier Park. "Our Town Crier volunteers have five years experience dealing with the public. On occasion, we meet the hateful confrontation of the Communists among us. Our volunteers know how to recognize and deal with it. St. Augustine Beach should be a tolerant and open beach community. Tyranny from City Hall overshadows American values," SATP, Chairman, Lance Thate, a former 25 year resident of the community explained. Like our Facebook page.

The Back of the Never Trump Movement Broken

Last Obstacle to Trump Removed

Establishment Media Outraged

The back of the "Never Trump" movement has been broken. The last obstacle holding such notables as Glenn Beck, Eric Erickson and Jason Phillips from endorsing Trump has been removed. The Tonight Show and Jimmy Fallon have paved the way to a Trump victory.

It's official....

Trump's Hair is Real

This closely guarded secret being revealed has outraged the establishment media. Jimmy Fallon branded a traitor by the left. Donald Trump now has a clear path to the White House. Never before in history has an American President been elected based on his hair style and whether it is real or not.

This truly, is no ordinary election.

“The Enemies Within”

Act for America and Bear Witness are two organizations fighting for Liberty by exposing the Islamic and Communist threats to our internal security.

On September 21, 2016 a meeting sponsored by both organizations was conducted at Salem Center, in Jacksonville, Florida. Bear Witness reports that approximately 100 people attended. The featured speaker was Trevor Loudon. Mr. Loudon, a renowned investigator and author on the subject of communist infiltration in the Western world, presented his full-length video of “The Enemies Within”.

Trevor Loudon to Address SATP

In an interview after the meeting, Lance Thate, Chairman of the St. Augustine Tea Party (SATP), revealed that arrangements had been made with Mr. Loudon to have him as a featured speaker at the next open meeting of the SATP on September 27, 2016. “It will be a doubleheader. First, our own, Rose Bailey will be speaking about HUD and government control of our private property. Then Trevor Loudon will make his presentation. To fit the time constraints, the normal SATP Officer's reports will be removed from the agenda,” Chairman Thate announced.

“The St. Augustine Tea Party meets at the Village Inn, which is located at 900 Ponce de Leon Boulevard (US 1 N), St. Augustine, FL 32084. The meeting begins at 6:30 PM on 9-27-16. We will open the meeting promptly at 6:30 because of the doubleheader presentation,” Thate concluded.

New Pre-Debate Poll

The clock is ticking. The race for the Presidency is coming down the stretch. And Trump is leading by over three lengths in the latest St. George Street Poll, taken in the historic district of St Augustine, Florida, just two days before the first debate. The results are as follows:

TRUMP 57%
HILLARY 17%
NEITHER 26%

There was much more calling out loud of the candidates names as the people passed the pollster on Saturday, September 24th...both for Hillary and for Donald Trump. It could have been the urgency of the hour.

Surprisingly, the tally for "Neither" of the two candidates was a whopping 26%. That's over a quarter of those polled today.

The poll is a face-to-face random selection of voting age Americans. The demographic is national. The St. Augustine Tea Party has been conducting these polls for the past 20 months.

Trevor Loudon in St Augustine

Photos by TCC Staff

The St. Augustine Tea Party hosted Trevor Loudon, internationally known author and lecturer, at its regularly scheduled open meeting on September 27, 2016. Mr. Loudon's investigative activity exposing both the Communist and the Islamic infiltration into Western governments has resulted in the production of a new documentary film. The one hour and 45 minute full-length movie, entitled "The Enemies Within", was shown to the Tea Party's members and guests. A near full capacity audience, including many first time attendees, was held spellbound by the revelations contained in the film. Mr. Loudon contends that many members of Loudon was able to personally thank a World War II Marine veteran who served in the South Pacific. Lucky Howe, pictured above with Loudon, is a treasured member of the St. Augustine Tea Party.

Congress could not pass an FBI security check because of current and past associations. He believes that requiring a security check before a member of Congress could hold a committee position would severely damage the Communist infiltration of the Congress. In addition, the passage of HR 3892 would disrupt the Muslim Brotherhood and set them back 50 years. The Islamic and Communist movements have aligned to bring down our American culture.

Trevor Loudon often thanks his American audiences for their American World War II sacrifices, as they saved his native New Zealand from a Japanese invasion. Tonight, Mr.

Five Years and Counting

With the posting of this issue of the Town Crier Committee Report, we mark the Fifth Anniversary of this publication. Pictured right, are the first members of the Town Crier

Committee. The signs shown below are the first politically incorrect signs which the Town Criers carried. These signs are pretty mild compared to future signs. "The typical Tea Party signage was discouraged by our Republican leadership at the time.

So we got rid of the GOP leadership. The Republican's reluctance to pay attention to the public's opinion was as prevalent in 2011, as it is today," the Town Criers recalled.

The first words ever published, were as follows:

"We welcome you to this first issue of the Town Crier Committee Report. In this publication we will strive to keep you informed of the activities of the Committee and to make you aware of ways in which you can participate. Members of our Committee have for some time now been engaging the public on the streets of St Augustine, FL".

"We dress in period clothes and walk the streets while boldly full presenting size Gadsden Flags. The sight of Revolutionary period clothing and the bright yellow flags give us the opportunity to promote the Tea Party, to educate the public on the values of the Tea Party and the lessons that can be learned from The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, which we pass out as we move among the people. It is this one to one public contact with the people which inspires Committee members to continue their efforts. We are blessed to see the awaking of America first hand."

Photos by TCC Staff October 2011

These words could have been written yesterday. But in fact, they were written in October 2011. Over the last five years, the public has indeed made great strides in understanding the dangers we face from domestic totalitarian forces. The Town Criers popularity with the public is as great as ever, which tells the members of our committee that the Tea Party is as relevant as ever. We are despised by the Democrats, rejected by the Republicans, ridiculed by the establishment press, but adored by the American people. We think this is a very good place to be. We do not know how this upcoming election is going to turn out. And the consequences of either one winning has its problems. We will still be there to defend the Constitution. We are still blessed to see the awakening first hand.
