Chairman's Report

Is War on the Horizon?

My Chairman's reports of late have focused on the Communists among us. I have focused on their presence in the media, in the deep state, both nationally and locally and especially as they appear in the two political parties, in one form or another, rendering the two party systems dysfunctional. Those of you who have been attending here on a regular basis are well aware of the content of my messages. However, my message is directed to those guests who are either here for the first time or those who have not experienced this Tea Party's aggressive stance against the Progressive brand of Communism.

Perhaps more important, is the publication of this message for those who need to hear it. I publish the Chairman's report on our website, include it in our monthly mailing and place it on social media venues.

As you may recall, about a year ago I made an extensive effort to develop a personal Facebook following with 5000 friends. To reach that goal I probably reviewed 10,000 or more profiles to achieve the 5000 pro Constitutional patriots that I now have. They are people who are willing to stand up to defend the founding values of America. What I learned from this effort is that there are a substantial number of people that are prepared to defend liberty against the tyranny of the collective forces.

During the American Revolution the population was divided somewhat as it is today. One third supported the King, one third supported independence and one third was indifferent. But, only 3% of the population actually took up arms.

My Facebook friends combined with their friends exceed the 3% which would be necessary to fight the next revolution should it come to that. If... my little pool of patriots can identify sufficient numbers for victory, imagine how great the number truly is.

Facebook has severely crippled my capacity to reach out to large numbers. My 5000 friends are hard to evaluate in terms of outreach from the postings I receive. The effort was probably not worthwhile from a posting perspective. However, my Town Crier account is a business account and I can see how many people respond to my postings.

The account has a following of about 1780 people. Like my personal account, our Town Crier account is restricted by Facebook but trends are discernible.

For example the article regarding School Board Member, Beverly Soughs, who spoke here a month ago only, received 87 views. My Chairman's report, given the same night, received 215 views. And the report given two weeks ago received 1800 views with 35 shares. Clearly the exposure of the Communists among us is of importance to patriotic Americans. Facebook sucks for Conservatives. We are grateful to have our Website, our extensive email list and its following which are not subject to manipulation.

Our Town Crier Committee volunteers have a rich history of exposing the Progressive Communist threat. As early as November 2011, the Town Criers took on Ed Slavin and his band of Occupiers in the historic district. By confronting them, they withdrew from their Occupation of the Plaza over the course of several months.

On Memorial Day 2012, we began exposing the occupant of the White House, one Barack Hussein Obama, as a Communist. We carried this sign. It is beat up today. It actually collapsed during a rainstorm. We have retained it for sentimental reasons. Before this campaign was over we went through five generations of signs, only ending the effort with Obama's departure from the White House.

In 2012, the Tea Party was still associated with the Republicans. Republicans would come up to us and say, "You're not doing any good by doing this". It was as though we were supposed to take instructions from Republicans as how to save the country. Their track record sucks.

At the time, the GOP was terrified that the Tea Parties would embarrass them. In the same manner, they are terrified that Donald Trump will embarrass them. They continually insist that Trump should behave like a Republican President. They want him to get some dignity and stop his tweeting. God forbid!

In 2012, local Republicans here were certain that the St Augustine Record Newspaper would use our activity to discredit the local REC. Our position then was, and still is, "who cares".

All media coverage is good and our current President has proven that. It's what you make of it. The Republicans have never learned this lesson. Or the GOP leadership is colluding with the Democrats. Take your pick. Something's wrong here.

In 2011 and early 2012, the Town Criers were able to directly engage Ed Slavin and the other Occupiers because the Police did not interfere. Eight years later, in the name of public safety, we are separated from the current Occupiers led by Ron Rawls. Rawls, along with his Jacksonville Occupiers, Black Lives Matter, and New Black Panther Party people are not required to follow existing laws when they appear on our streets. They take control of the sidewalks, occupy public buildings and harass local businesses at will while the St. Augustine Police Department watches. However, the St. Augustine Tea Party's Town Criers are threatened with arrest if they dare to challenge Rawls' illegal behavior. We see the same behavior in the great cities across America. The police simply do not enforce the law.

The Communists launch claims of racism and white supremacy on anyone who resists their agenda, even their own, on some occasions. Another attack technique is that of projecting their behavior onto their enemies. The Clintons, for example, tried to project their "Russian Collusion" and corruption onto Donald Trump.

On a local level, the Communist technique of projection was thrust upon this Tea Party this very week. The picture that accompanied my last Chairman's report showed MAGA hats on the table, such as we have here tonight. This prompted, Tom Reynolds, a local left-wing activist to respond.

And I directly quote Mr. Reynolds:

"Yo is Lance e ... I noticed your photo with the MAGA hats. But you and your GANG are Authoritarian Communists, PERIOD!
YES SUPER UN-AMERICAN MAGGOTS! Wow ... you really are an idiot Lance ... you and your Gang of Morons hated and still HATE Obama so much that you have wrapped yourselves around a DIRTY RUSSIAN Authoritarian Communist loving SCUMBAG NAMED DONALD TRUMP WHAT THE FUCK IS WRONG WITH YOU IDIOTS? YOU AND THE OTHER domestic Terrorists in your GANG are NO Ronald Regan Republicans ... no John F. Kennedy Democrats you and the St Augustine TEA Party Morons are committing Treason and are BIG TIME TRADERS of American Values."

The quoted text has numerous capitalizations representing shouting and reflects the emotion of this disturbed individual. Several years ago the Tea Party came to the defense of Reynolds when his first amendment rights were challenged by the City Commissioners of the City of St. Augustine Beach during an election process. It was the right thing to do considering Constitutional values. But we have never found the content of his speech to have value. His style is the same style used by the Communists who march with Ron Rawls through our streets, shouting irrational slander and name-calling. This is the hallmark of those who lack any semblance of speaking the truth.

Truly, we live in the time that “tries men’s souls”. There is a great divide in America, a divide as great as the division in 1860. If a second Civil War evolves, the fight will involve the issue of slavery again. Will Americans submit to the enslavement consistent with Socialist and Communist ideology? I think not.

Americans are and always have been winners and are about winning. The Communists have always appealed to losers. If there is a violent struggle pending in America, it will be a short lived event. The conservative movement enjoys a considerable strategic advantage over the Progressive Communists.

The Communist’s followers reside in the densely inhabited cities of America. Those cities are surrounded by the great land mass that constitutes the United States. Those cities are dependent on the rest of the country for their existence, where the other half of the population lives, which is conservative in nature.

Cities do not produce food, in many cases they produce no water and they do not produce fuel or electric power. The cities could get very nasty very quickly without the resources necessary to keep them going. The cities are not in control of the assets they need. Conservatives are! Those assets could be turned off with a very small number employing guerrilla activities as it was in the first revolution.

There are about 1 million men under arms with many deployed outside of the United States. Experts in this field estimate that approximately 40% would remain loyal to the central government. The forces loyal to the central government would have their hands full attempting to maintain order in the chaos occurring in the cities.

There are 18 million veterans who are proficient with firearms. Many of those veterans were trained to kill Communists. These are same veterans that the Communists want to disarm.

As it was in 1775, Americans chose to be free of “The European Kings” of their time. So it will be in our time. Americans will reject the alien European concept of collective enslavement. Let us pray that we do not have to engage in bloodshed. Let us hope that our President will be permitted and able to restore America to its greatness. Either way we will prevail in victory. The Republic will endure.

God bless the Republic,

Lance Thate

On the Anniversary of 9/11, We Must Counter the Enemy Within

There is no time to sit on the sidelines anymore. The 9/11 commission report said: "We lacked imagination." Today, America is at a crossroads of irreversible consequences. The country cannot be more divided. The ideological differences between those who believe in the foundation of our founding fathers and those who want to transform our country could not be clearer. 9/11 is a time of reflection. What are we doing to save our country from harm? The time to become engaged is now. Our country's future hangs in the balance.

Tea Party Leaving Village Inn Cites Racism as Cause

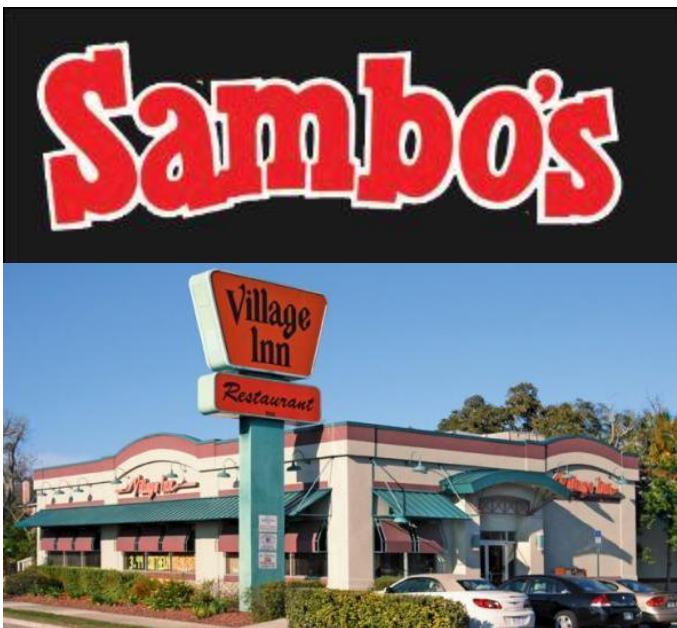

Americans No Longer Seeking Consensus They're Choosing Sides

After nine years of bi-monthly open meetings with speakers, the St Augustine Village Inn has given notice to the Tea Party group that they are no longer welcome at the Village Inn.

"Flabbergasted!" is the only word to describe the notice from Village Inn Manager, Edward Pierce, according to Dave Heimbold, Media Chairman for the St Augustine Tea Party (SATP). "We never had any problems in 9 years at any of our 216 open Speaker meetings at Village Inn," Heimbold volunteered.

management and a different time."

If SATP Committee meetings and Town Crier meetings are included, the Tea Party has had in excess of 500 visits to the Restaurant over the past 9 years. Lance Thate, the SATP Chairman, recalls the Town Criers appearing each Saturday dressed in "period clothing" to prepare the pocket Constitutions which they distributed in the Historic District of St. Augustine, Florida. "We used to consider the Village Inn our office, meeting there to prepare our signs and Constitutions for our weekly visits with the tourists in the Historic District. In return, we would entertain their customers in the restaurant. In the parking lot and at the entrance to the restaurant, their clientele would pose with us and hold our extremely "Politically Incorrect" signs. That was a different election, a different local Village Inn

Tea Party Attacked By Both Political Parties

This isn't the first time that the Tea Party has been attacked by operatives of the political parties. During the 2012 election, it was the Republicans that took the offensive; canceling their meetings, sending operatives to have a sign which advertised the Tea Party's meetings at the Village Inn removed from the Village Inn's building and letter writing campaigns demanding that the Tea Party be prohibited from holding meetings at the restaurant. The local management at the time resisted these attacks and continued to support our presence in their restaurant.

Now it appears elements of the Democrat side feel threaten by the Tea Party's activity. Their response is a coordinated attempt to quiet the SATP's exposure of the Communist menace.

The Tea Party reports that they first became aware of a change of attitude in January of 2019. The Tea Party had an opportunity to host State Representative, Mike Hill. His availability was on the fifth Tuesday of the month which was January 29, 2019. [The Tea Party meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each Month Ed] Someone, who identified himself, on the telephone, as the manager of the Village Inn, presumably Mr. Pierce, informed Lance Thate that the rear dining room of the Village Inn was occupied on that night. This turned out to be not true, that in fact, all Tuesdays were open at the Village Inn. It became clear to the Tea Party leadership that they had an enemy within the ranks of the local Village Inn management or staff.

When questioned about the incident, the SATP Chairman responded with:

"Yes, the requested January 29th meeting was denied by, I assumed, Ed Pierce. We had someone within the Village Inn staff that was willing to lie to undermine Tea Party activities. As it turned out, the meeting was held at another location and was very successful. Concurrent with this event, informants within local Communist Organizations and within the Democrat Party itself started suggesting that they were becoming concerned with the Tea Party's anti-Communist rhetoric and the disproportionate number of black featured speakers at the Tea Party meetings. If there is one thing that the Communists will not tolerate, that is a "Conservative Black Person". We were advised to be on the lookout for 'Trolls'. This is particularly true about the time the Tea Party invited the first featured speaker from the St. Johns County School Board, Beverly Slough. The Communists believe they also own the education system. During this period, I was advised by Terri Falandys, the 'Night Village Inn Manager' that the waitresses no longer wanted to serve our Tea Party in the rear dining room. Dave Heimbold took it upon himself to try to rectify the situation by making an agreement to pay an extra $20 to the server for each meeting on top of the tips they were already receiving. Yet that, Dave reports, didn't seem to quite satisfy Terri. Ed, her manager, accosted Heimbold stating his agreement with Terri wasn't cutting it. Dave asked him how much more money he needed to cover the waitresses expense. He never got an answer. Business slows down during the very hot summer weeks and into September. Tourism dips. Businesses like restaurants, in St Augustine, are hardest hit. Still our Tea Party had 25 in attendance, several of which ate dinner, on September 10th while the rest of the restaurant was essentially empty. This was the situation when the night manager called me over to inform me that she had numerous complaints and an irate dishwasher because of the content of the chairman's report, which I had just minutes before concluded. "You just can't make those kinds of statements in a public restaurant," Terri said. "My black dishwasher is offended." My response was, 'that's his problem.' Terri could not have had any complaints from the people in the restaurant as the volume of our sound system was unusually low making it difficult for people at the meeting in the rear dining room to hear, much less in the front of the restaurant. Terri confirmed it was not the sound system at fault. What we have here is an organized communist protest using the standard white supremacy and racist implications with a 'Troll' in the kitchen. However the real racism is being directed towards the Tea Party's black speakers who are being silenced. Is Village Inn returning to the 'Little Black Sambo' days? "

Little Black Sambo Returns

Reverse Racism and Discrimination Against Black Conservatives

The only thing different is that the SATP has had more black speakers addressing the predominately white audience at the Village Inn meeting room. Blacks from all walks of life are "Walking Away" from the Communist plantation life. "It sure wasn't white supremacy!" exclaimed Dave Heimbold. For several meetings at the Village Inn recently, management was acting a little stand-offish and not as friendly as usual, according to Tea Party members. "Something was brewing at the Village Inn and it boiled over in the kitchen when a 'Troll' whipped up some evil stew against our interracial meetings".

Then the two legged Troll ease-dropped on a Chairman's report which was being read. What he heard was the part of a rant emailed to the Tea Party by Tom Reynolds, attacking the Tea Party and the Chairman himself. Chairman Thate wanted to inform the audience of the abuse that he's been taking from this particular person in St. Johns County over the Internet. He read this to advice the Tea Party members of what was said about the Tea Party. Meanwhile, the Troll dishwasher in the kitchen whipped up a fabricated story and gave it to the management, who never checked it out before giving the Tea Party the boot.

"The Tea Party's suggestion to the owner of the Village Inn is to fire the Troll in the kitchen and reprimand the staff for their knee jerk reaction and embarrassment to the business. The Tea Party has always enjoyed being at the Village Inn aside from this incident. Everybody has been fabulous over the years. We just wanted to say we welcome and applaud our black friends for coming and speaking about political issues and sharing," Heimbold said. The most recent example is the pain the parents of murder victim, Brandon Michael, from Jacksonville shared. The Michaels, 'Angel Parents' of Brandon, were warmly received by the Tea Party, at the Village Inn. It was just one of four recent events at Village Inn where we embraced our black brothers and sisters, in 2019.

People are choosing sides in America and the local management of the Village Inn just chose the Communist's Racist side.

Does this reflect the Village Inn owner's view as well?
